

Florence Reminder Blade Tribune > Top Stories

New Infill Incentive District approved

Print Page

Published: Thursday, January 6, 2011 5:09 AM MST

The town's practice the last few years of encouraging building in the town core and North Florence by exempting those areas from impact fees is ending, to be replaced by new rules to consider such waivers case-by-case.

The Town Council passed a resolution establishing the Town Core Infill Incentive District and adopting the Florence Town Core Infill Incentive Plan at Monday's regular meeting. The council also heard the first reading of an ordinance eliminating the current impact fee exemption areas.

You can read the rest of this article in our print edition. Start a home delivery subscription.

Copyright © 2011 - Tri Valley Central

[\[x\] Close Window](#)