Public Workshop on City of Grass Valley Development Impact Fee Study

Author: Carol Fish, Finance Director, City of Grass Valley

Published on Jan 20, 2006, 09:04

An informational workshop on the City of Grass Valley's Development Impact Fee Study has been scheduled at 10 a.m., Tuesday, January 24, 2006 in the Hullender Room of Grass Valley City Hall, 125 East Main.

The City of Grass Valley has retained MAXIMUS to prepare this study to analyze the impacts of development on the City's capital facilities and to calculate development impact fees based on that analysis. The Project Manager for the study will be available on the 24th from 10 to 12 a.m. to go over the study with the public and to answer any questions. Public comments are welcomed and encouraged during the review process.

Chapters of the study under discussion for this meeting include Parks, Water System, Wastewater System, Drainage, Administrative and General Government, Traffic and Circulation Improvements.

Draft copies of the six chapters under discussion of the Development Impact Fee Study are available for review during business hours at Grass Valley City Hall and online at www.cityofgrassvalley.com. If you have any questions about the Development Impact Fee Study, please contact the Finance Department at 274-4300.
