

Casa Grande Dispatch > Top Stories

23% impact fee cut nears

Print Page

Casa Grande takes initial steps to comply with new state law

---

By HAROLD KITCHING
Staff Writer

Published: Wednesday, October 19, 2011 8:49 AM MST

The Casa Grande City Council took the first steps Monday night to comply with a law passed by the Arizona Legislature at the request of the Central Arizona Homebuilders Association that severely limits how development impact fees may be calculated and where they may be applied.

The fees, passed on by the homebuilders to buyers, are essentially charged to keep services at the same levels as the city grows, putting some of the burden on new residents.

You can read the rest of this article in our e-Edition or start a home delivery subscription.

file photo

Copyright © 2011 - Tri Valley Central

[\[x\] Close Window](#)